

Difference, Power, and Responsibility

HYBRID INSTRUCTOR SEMINARS

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW MORE ABOUT ...

- Engaging every student in your classroom
- Addressing sensitive content in the classroom
- Creating an anti-biased classroom environment

The Difference, Power, and Responsibility Instructor Seminar addresses these questions. The seminar is designed to explore how issues of difference and power are embedded in curricula and how teaching strategies can engage or marginalize students.

The seminar goals are to create a community of learners to build skills, resources and a community of support to modify or redesign curriculum and enact changes to courses and classroom design.

Completion of the seminar is required for faculty teaching DPR-certified classes.

Chemeketa Community College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and educational institution.
